*Mid-Con Conference Game

lNow in its 24th year as an NCAA Division I athletics conference, the Mid-Continent Conference is coming off a year in which its student-athletes, coaches, administrators and teams continued to strengthen its reputation as a nationally competitive and well-respected league. The Mid-Con's member schools - Centenary College of Louisiana, Chicago State University, IUPUI (Indiana University-Purdue University Indianapolis), UMKC (University of Missouri-Kansas City), Oakland University, Oral Roberts University, Southern Utah University, Valparaiso University and Western Illinois University - are located primarily in the Midwest's largest urban areas, and pride themselves on providing quality athletic, academic and social experiences for their student-athletes.

The Mid-Con sponsors an all-time high of 19 championship sports, which includes: baseball, men's and women's basketball, men's and women's cross country, men's and women's golf, men's and women's soccer, softball, men's and women's swimming & diving, men's and women's indoor track & field, men's and women's outdoor track & field, men's and women's tennis, and volleyball.

A brief review of the Mid-Con's highlights over the past two decades:

The Association of Mid-Continent Universities is founded with "Frosty" Ferzacca as its first commissioner. The initial AMCU line-up includes Cleveland State, Eastern Illinois, Illinois-Chicago, Northern Iowa, SW Missouri State, Valparaiso, Western Illinois and Wisconsin-Green Bay.

1983-84

UW-Green Bay and Eastern Illinois each play in the NCAA Men's Soccer Tournament, making them the league's first NCAA Tourney teams in any sport.

1985-86

Cleveland State earns the AMCU's first national recognition in the NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament. The 14th-seeded Vikings upset No. 3 seed Indiana on their way to a "Sweet 16" appearance. In addition, SW Missouri State begins a string of five consecutive postseason appearances by reaching the quarterfinals of the NIT.

The AMCU sends two teams to men's basketball postseason play for the third straight season. Ferzacca steps down as commissioner and is replaced by Jerry Ippoliti. Eastern Illinois' Jim Maton is the league's first NCAA National Champion, as he wins the 800 meter run at the NCAA Indoor Track Championship.

1989-90

The AMCU sends a conference-record three teams to postseason play in men's basketball, including Northern Iowa, which upsets former No. 1 Missouri in the first round of the NCAA Tournament. The AMCU changes its name to the now familiar Mid-Continent Conference.

1990-91

For the second straight season, the Mid-Con sends two teams - in this case, Northern Illinois and UW-Green Bay - to the NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament.

1991-92

The league announces that it will begin sponsoring women's athletics - strengthened by the membership of seven former North Star Conference members - the following year with the debut of six championship sports. UW-Green Bay's Tony Bennett establishes the league's all-time scoring record in men's basketball and wins his second straight Mid-Con Scholar-Athlete of the Year Award.

1992-93

UW-Milwaukee wins the first Mid-Con-sponsored women's championship when it takes home the cross country crown. Northern Illinois makes the first NCAA appearance by a Mid-Con women's team in the NCAA Women's Basketball Tournament. Wright State's Brian Anderson is the third overall pick in the Major League Baseball draft after repeating as the league's Pitcher of the Year.

1993-94

Northern Illinois' volleyball squad posts the league's first women's NCAA Tourney win with a three-game triumph over Illinois State. UW-Green Bay upsets California in the first round of the NCAA Men's Basketball Tourney. Six schools depart the Mid-Con at the conclusion of the season.

1994-95

The league's revamped line-up includes Buffalo, Central Connecticut State, Chicago State, UMKC, Northeastern Illinois and Troy State. Jon Steinbrecher begins a league-record nine-year tenure at the Mid-Con helm when he replaces Ippoliti as commissioner. Valparaiso begins a string of five straight regular-season titles and six consecutive Mid-Con Tournament titles in men's basketball.

1995-96

Charter member Eastern Illinois departs the Mid-Con, but not until after winning its ninth men's outdoor track and field title, a record for all Mid-Con sports that still stands.

1996-97

Buffalo (cross country) and Valparaiso (volleyball) earn the first-ever "three-peats" in Mid-Con women's athletics.

1997-98

Oral Roberts and Southern Utah join the Mid-Con. Oral Roberts begins a string of six straight Mid-Con volleyball titles, and wins its first-round match in the NCAA Tournament by edging Arizona in five games. The Mid-Con becomes one of few NCAA Division I conferences across the nation to simultaneously run its basketball championships at the same neutral site. Valparaiso reaches the NCAA "Sweet 16", thanks to the efforts of NBA draftee Bryce Drew, who hits "The Shot" which eventually earns him an ESPY from ESPN. Youngstown State earns the first Mid-Con women's tourney win, topping fifth-seeded Memphis in the first round.

IUPUI and Oakland begin competition in the Mid-Con. Western Illinois wins its eighth men's swimming and diving title. Associate member DePaul reaches the NCAA Softball College World Series, posting a third-place finish, and sets a Mid-Con single-season record with 54 wins.

1999-00

Southern Utah is the first Mid-Con school to win an NCAA Cross Country regional with a victory in the Mountain Region. The Thunderbirds went on to finish 21st in the NCAA Men's Cross Country Championship. Western Illinois softball reels off a 25-game win streak behind Mid-Con Pitcher of the Year Holly Killion, who sets Mid-Con records with 30 wins and 355 strikeouts.

2000-01

Oakland women's soccer player Anita Rapp - a two-time Mid-Con Player of the Year (1999, 2001) and a WUSA draftee - earns a Gold Medal while playing for her native Norway in the 2000 Olympic Games. The Mid-Con renames its Women's All Sports Award for retiring Western Illinois Director of Athletics Dr. Helen Smiley.

2001-02

Southern Utah sweeps the Mid-Con cross country championships for the fourth straight year, while UMKC captures the conference's first-ever NCAA Men's Soccer College Cup win, a 2-1 overtime triumph over former league member UW-Milwaukee. Oral Roberts' Krista Ragan sets the Mid-Con women's basketball career scoring record (2,105), and becomes the first player in league history to earn four first-team all-conference citations in the sport. Valparaiso posts the biggest turnaround in NCAA women's basketball (from 7-22 in 2000-01 to 26-7 in 2001-02) on its way to reaching the quarterfinals of the WNIT. UMKC's Matt Voelker earns outdoor track and field All-America honors in the high jump.

The Mid-Con sets a league record by sending four teams combined - IUPUI (NCAA) and Valparaiso (NIT) on the men's side and Valparaiso (NCAA) and Western Illinois (WNIT) on the women's side - to basketball postseason play. Oral Roberts' Marsha Dawkins earns All-America honors in the 400 meter dash at both the NCAA Indoor and Outdoor Track and Field Championships. IUPUI women's basketball player Tiffany Kyser is Indiana's recipient of the NCAA "Woman of the Year" award (she is also a finalist for the national award). Steinbrecher resigns as commissioner and is replaced by Ron Bertovich.

Centenary begins Mid-Con play, lifting the league's membership to nine. The Mid-Con sends two teams (UMKC, Oakland) to the NCAA Men's Soccer College Cup for the second time in league history, and Oakland's swimming & diving programs set league records for consecutive titles when they sweep the Mid-Con Championships for the fifth straight time. UMKC's Michael Watson finishes his career as the league's all-time leading scorer (2,488) in men's hoops, while Oral Roberts' Caleb Green and Ken Tutt are the nation's highest scoring freshman duo. Oral Roberts sets a league record with 50 wins and finishes the season ranked in all four of college baseball's polls. Southern Utah becomes the first Mid-Con school to sweep the men's and women's cross country and indoor and outdoor track & field crowns in the same year. Oral Roberts' Prince Mumba (800 meter) and Western Illinois' Aubrey Martin (shot put) earn All-America honors at the NCAA Outdoor Track and Field Championship; Mumba runs for his native Zambia in the 2004 Athens Olympics, while Valparaiso's Joaquim Gomes plays for the Angolan Olympic basketball team. The Mid-Con Men's All Sports Award is renamed for retiring Valparaiso Director of Athletics Dr. William Steinbrecher.

Oral Roberts' Faithy Kamangila finished 11th at the NCAA Cross Country Championships to become the first woman in school history to garner All-American honors. Oakland claims the Mid-Con men's basketball Championship on a last-second three-pointer by Pierre Dukes to win the title as the seventh seed. In its first-ever NCAA Tournament appearance, the Golden Grizzlies notched a win over Alabama A&M in the opening round before falling to eventual National Champion North Carolina in the first round. For the second consecutive season, Oral Roberts' baseball team collected a pair of victories in the NCAA tourney. The Golden Eagles had five players selected in the Major League Baseball Draft, while Oakland's Paul Phillips was the top Mid-Con player chosen in the ninth round. Western Illinois softball coach Kathy Veroni retires after 34 seasons at the helm, while ORU's Mable Kunihira garnered All-American honors at the Outdoor Track & Field Championships with a fifth place finish in the 800-meter run.

Centenary College of Louisiana is a selective liberal arts college offering undergraduate programs in the arts, humanities, natural sciences, and social sciences, as well as a limited number of graduate programs. Students and faculty work together to sustain a community focused on ethical and intellectual development, respect and concern for human and spiritual values, and the joy of creativity and discovery. Consistent with its affiliation with the United Methodist Church, the College encourages a lifelong dedication not only to learning but also to serving others.

In pursuit of these ideals, the College challenges its students to write and speak clearly; to read, listen, and think critically; to comprehend, interpret, and synthesize ideas; to analyze information qualitatively and quantitatively; to appreciate the diversity of human cultures; to respect the value of artistic expression; to realize the importance of a healthy mind and body; and to recognize the interdependence of people and the environment.

MAGALE LIBRARY

Academic Program

Centenary College of Louisiana offers three undergraduate degree programs: the Bachelor of Arts, the Bachelor of Science and the Bachelor of Music.

The Centenary curriculum aims to produce graduates of extraordinary intellectual and vocational versatility who are prepared to assume responsible positions in their communities and professions. The College prepares its students in critical thinking and in the fundamental communication skills of writing, speaking and numeracy.

The core curriculum begins with the First-Year Experience, which initiates an emphasis on critical thinking and rhetorical skills in an interdisciplinary context. The balance of the core curriculum further develops these skills while it introduces students to basic areas and fundamental techniques of human inquiry. Specific core requirements are the First-Year Experience and selected courses offering inquiry in the humanities, mathematics, natural sciences, and social sciences. Additionally, all undergraduates participate in the Centenary Plan, which involves a service-learning project, career exploration, and an intercultural experience.

Academic Facilities

Centenary has a personal computer for one of every three undergraduates. Every residence hall room is wired for free, direct Internet and computer connections. Some 30 computer laboratories are spread throughout campus, as are numerous multimedia editing and projection facilities. The Magale Library, the academic heart of the campus, has a wealth of volumes, searchable databases, personal computers, multi-media accessories, and software programs.

Specially equipped buildings and facilities include the Marjorie Lyons Playhouse, the Gold Dome, the Fitness Center and Swimming Pool, Mickle Hall of Science, Hurley Music Building, Jackson Hall, Turner Art Center, and the Meadows Museum of Art.

Faculty

More than 90 percent of Centenary's faculty hold the highest degree in their disciplines. There are 74 full-time and 41 part-time faculty members, with a student-faculty ratio of 12 to 1. There are no graduate students teaching classes at Centenary. The primary emphasis is on teaching, although research and service activities are also important components of the Centenary experience. These activities involve undergraduates to an extent unavailable at large institutions.

Summary

Academic and co-curricular programs support students in their development and encourage them to become leaders in the work place, the community, the nation, and the world at large.

CENTENARY ATHLETICS

Centenary College of Louisiana has fielded an athletic team in at least one sport since 1894, when the football team faced Louisiana State University. Centenary's football squad was one of the best in the South in the first half of the 20th century, the high point being an undefeated 10-0 season in 1927.

Centenary produced professionals Conway Baker, Buddy Parker, and Cal Hubbard. Hubbard is a member of three halls of fame: Pro Football Hall of Fame, College Football Hall of Fame, and Baseball Hall of Fame. However, the poor oil economy in the area forced the discontinuation of the football program in 1947.

The 1920s saw the establishment of the men's basketball and baseball teams at Centenary. The basketball Gents have had 44 seasons with a .500 or better winning percentage, including the 2003-2004 campaign.

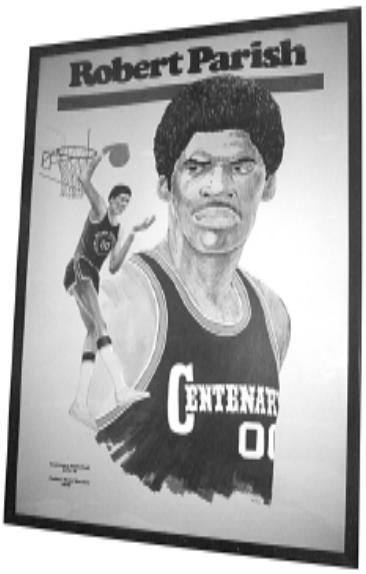
Hal Sutton '81

From 1972 to 1976, Robert Parish dominated Centenary's opponents, leading the Gents to an 87-21 record over that span. Parish still holds numerous Centenary records, including the single game scoring record (50 points vs. Lamar in 1972), the single season rebounding record (18.7 rpg in 1972-73), and the career record for most field goals made (1,034). Parish was drafted in the first round by the Golden State Warriors in 1976 and later, as part of arguably the greatest frontcourt in NBA history, won three NBA championships with the Boston Celtics in the 1980s. In April 2003 Parish was chosen to be inducted in the National Basketball Hall of Fame.

With a new 1,000-seat stadium, the baseball team is attracting top players to play for Centenary and top teams to play against the Gents. Thirty-two players who put on the Centenary uniform have gone on to play professionally. In recent years, the Gents have hosted Nebraska, Texas A&M, LSU and Arkansas. Nothern Iowa and Oklahoma are among the teams listed to battle the Gents on the 2006 schedule.

In 1980 the Golf Magazine College Player of the Year did not come from a traditional power. Hal Sutton, a native of Shreveport who stayed home to attend Centenary, won that honor as well as the 1980 U.S. Amateur. Sutton has gone on to win two Players Championships, a PGA Championship, and a Tour Championship, as well as earn a spot on four U.S. Ryder Cup teams. In 2004, Sutton served as the Ryder Cup captain for the United States squad.

Recently Centenary athletes have found their names at or near the top of the NCAA rankings. In 2000, women's soccer player Lara Brown led all Division I players in points per game and goals per game. Ronnie McCollum followed suit during the 2000-2001 basketball season, leading the nation in scoring. Andrew Wisniewski picked up where McCollum left off, finishing in the top 20 in scoring and steals during the 2002-2003 season.



Robert Parish '76

With the addition of men's and women's swimming in 2002-2003, Centenary now sponsors 16 intercollegiate sports, as many as any other Division I program in Northern Louisiana. Recent athletics highlights include the gymnastics team winning the 2004 USAG National Championship and the softball Ladies earning a trip to the NCAA Tournament in both the 2004 and 2005 seasons. In addition, the women's soccer team has qualified for the Mid-Con Tournament in every campaign since joining the league in 2003.

Centenary College is located two miles from downtown Shreveport, the third largest city in the state of Louisiana. Shreveport is located on the west bank of the Red River in Northwest Louisiana. Almost 400,000 people reside in the metropolitan Shreveport-Bossier area.

Shreveport is considered the geographical, cultural, and economic center of the region known as the Ark-La-Tex, encompassing East Texas, Northern Louisiana, and Southern Arkansas. Shreveport is only a few hours away by car from other major cities such as Dallas and Houston in Texas, Baton Rouge and New Orleans in Louisiana, Jackson, Mississippi, and Little Rock, Arkansas.

Downtown Shreveport behind the Texas Street Bridge.

Shreveport is separated from Bossier City by the Red River, but many locals consider themselves residents of the Shreveport-Bossier region as a whole instead of one of the specific cities. People who live here think nothing of crossing the river to take in an event, no matter which city is the official host.

There seems to always be a festival going on that shines a spotlight on some aspect of life in Shreveport-Bossier that is unique. In May, the Mudbug Madness Festival celebrates the abundance of crawfish found in the area, while African-American culture is celebrated in June with the Let The Good Times Roll Festival, featuring music, art and food.

One of the major highlights of the year in Shreveport is the State Fair of Louisiana, held every October. The fair features more than 70 rides and one of the finest livestock gatherings in the United States.

Another major event that showcases Shreveport on a national level is the Independence Bowl, held in late December. The annual college football game, featuring a team from the Big 12 Conference against one from the Southeastern Conference, is carried on national television and showcases the Shreveport-Bossier community coming together to make the event a success.

The Independence Bowl is not the only athletic competition held in the area. The CenturyTel Center, a 12,000-seat arena opened in 2000, is the home of minor league hockey (Bossier-Shreveport Mudbugs) and arena football (Bossier-Shreveport Battlewings), as well as basketball games and wrestling events. National fishing tournaments and golf tournaments have also been brought to Shreveport-Bossier in recent years.

The area features a wide range of museums, from autos and aviation to science and Elvis Presley. Many of the buildings in downtown Shreveport are now listed on the National Register of Historic Places, and a trip to the piney woods of Northwest Louisiana will yield visits to rural towns such as Vivian, Plain Dealing and Shongaloo, each one with its own collection of treasures, history, and fine dining.

There are plenty of outdoor activities in the Shreveport-Bossier area. From hiking at the Cypress Black Bayou Recreational Area to golfing at Olde Oaks Golf Club, a Hal Sutton signature course and part of the Audubon Golf Trail.

Recently, Bossier City opened The Louisiana Boardwalk, a multi-million dollar project alongside the Red River that boasts a large collection of shops, restaurants, entertainment and nightlife. No matter what you are looking for, the Shreveport-Bossier area has plenty to offer for everyone.

PRESIDENT OF THE COLLEGE

DR. KENNETH L. SCHWAB
President

Dr. Kenneth L. Schwab, President of Centenary College since 1991, has been firmly established as an excellent educator and administrator over nearly 30 years of service. During his career, Dr. Schwab has consistently applauded student athletes who pursue academics and sports with equal fervor, discipline, and high standards, and it is these characteristics that make Centenary Gents and Ladies stand out among their peers.

A tenured professor in the Department of Education, Dr. Schwab hails originally from Indiana where he received his bachelor's degree from Purdue University in 1969. He then earned his master's in guidance and counseling from the University of North Carolina-Greensboro in 1972 and his doctorate in higher education administration at Indiana University in 1978.

Though Dr. Schwab has held many administrative positions at Centenary and other institutions, he continues to pursue his own scholarship as well, publishing a book, numerous articles, and several institutional planning documents regarding presidential leadership and transformational change. Indeed, Dr. Schwab's keen interest in leadership and strategic planning helped Centenary's latest comprehensive campaign raise over $100 million for the college. This amount exceeded the initial goal by over $30 million, enabling Centenary to build two new music facilities as well as renovate residence halls and the fitness center.

These improvements do not merely benefit the campus, though. From the arboretum to the chapel, the playhouse to the library, recital halls to the Gold Dome, Centenary encourages student involvement, preparing scholars for active civic participation. This small liberal arts institution focuses on the student and endeavors to facilitate academic, athletic, and social development for the whole person. Our faculty and staff are committed to these goals, particularly for student athletes.

Dr. Schwab has actively involved himself with Centenary students throughout his tenure here. He team-taught Centenary's First-Year Experience program with the college's Chair of Liberal Arts one semester, and he travels with various Centenary groups like the college choir, always remaining a great Gents and Ladies supporter. In fact, he and the Centenary Gent mascot led the campus as they unveiled the new fitness center.

Active on-campus and off, Dr. Schwab participated in the Salzburg Seminar sponsored by the W.K. Kellogg Foundation, served as a European Community Visitor to the Commission of European Communities, and continued his scholarly work at Oxford, Johns Hopkins, and Harvard Universities. He also represents Centenary on a number of community and academic boards, including the Associated Colleges of the South Board of Directors.

Dr. Schwab's wife, Pat, earned her doctorate in education and now teaches a course each semester at Centenary. Their three sons (Kempten, Carlton, and Christopher) played select soccer throughout their school years.

Centenary President Dr. Kenneth Schwab cheers along with the students in the stands at the Gold Dome.

TAYLOR MOORE
Director of Athletics

Taylor Moore, a Centenary alum and former owner of the Shreveport Captains baseball team, became the College's athletic director on July 1, 2003. Moore replaced Dr. David Bedard, who decided to return to the classroom as a professor of health and exercise science after serving as athletic director for almost four years.

A 1969 Centenary graduate and former Centenary baseball coach, Moore was president and majority owner of Shreveport Baseball, Inc., which operated the Shreveport Captains Baseball Club, until he sold the franchise in 2000. The Captains were a Double-A professional baseball club affiliated with the San Francisco Giants.

Moore has stayed active within the Centenary community, serving as a board member and former president of the Centenary Gents Club. In 2001, he received the Centenary Alumni Association's highest honor when he was named to the Alumni Hall of Fame.

Moore took over an athletics division that began play in the Mid-Continent Conference in the fall of 2003 after four years of playing as an independent school unaffiliated with a conference. His experience and leadership will ensure that the Centenary athletics program will continue to grow and compete in its new home.

"Centenary has an exciting future ahead in athletics and I am pleased and honored to be able to have a part in it," Moore said. "I've been a member of the Centenary family for so long, I felt like I was coming home when I accepted this position. I have great respect for the College and its role in Division I competition."

Since becoming director of athletics, Moore has improved several facets of the overall program. He has led the charge in reinventing the booster club and has transformed it into the healthy organization it is today, known as the C Club. Under his guidance, renovations to the Mayo Soccer Complex have taken place and other facilities improvements are under way. In addition, supplemental staff such as assistant coaches and a director of marketing and promotions position have been created.

Moore has been recognized with the Texas League Award of Merit for 25 years of leadership, the Shreveport-Bossier Advertising Federation's Award of Excellence, the Sports Foundation Sportsman of the Year Award and the Shreveport Journal Sportsman of the Year designation.

Long active in local civic affairs, Moore is a board member of the Frost Foundation and the Committee of One Hundred. Before taking over as athletic director, he served as secretary and member of the Executive Committee of the Centenary Board of Trustees.

Moore knows the Centenary athletics department very well, having served as the head baseball coach for the Gents during the 1974 and 1975 seasons. His background as a student, a coach, and an administrator at the college, make him the perfect leader to build the Centenary athletic department into a competitive force within the Mid-Continent Conference for years to come.

Alan Edwards begins his 11th year as head athletic trainer for the Centenary athletic program. Edwards is a 1991 graduate of McNeese State University with a bachelor of science in health and physical education. He earned his master's degree in exercise science at Northeast Louisiana University in 1993. Edwards' services are provided through a partnership between Centenary College and Christus Schumpert Health System.

Dustin Bradstreet enters his third year as an athletic trainer at Centenary having moved to Shreveport from Wichita, Kansas. Bradstreet is a 2001 graduate of Fort Hays State University where he received a bachelor of science degree in physical education with a focus in athletic training. He continued his education at Fort Hays and graduated in 2003 with a masters degree in Health and Human Performance with emphases in exercise science and sports administration. He is certified with the National Athletic Trainer's Association Board of Certification and has been in good standing since 2001.

Mike Peck is in his first year with the Centenary athletics program after working extensively with many of the area schools and professional teams since 2001. He previously assisted with the athletic trainers at LSU-Shreveport and the Shreveport Sports independent baseball team while serving as the head athletic trainer for the Bossier-Shreveport BattleWings of the af2. Peck earned both his Bachelor of Science in Physical Education with an emphasis in athletic training, and his Master of Science in Physical Education with an emphasis in Sports Administration from Fort Hays State. Prior to attending Fort Hays, Peck served in the United States Army and Army Reserve for six years.

Edwards, Bradstreet, and Peck also supervise student and volunteer assistants as they gain valuable experience in their pursuit of becoming Certified Athletic Trainers. Student and volunteer assistants obtain practical experience at home and on the road, working with the Gents and Ladies athletic teams.

The Centenary College sports medicine facility is located on the bottom floor of the Gold Dome, where continued improvements have resulted in an enhanced facility.

The improvements include an upgraded computer system with injury tracking software, the addition of two stationary bicycles, and an increased storage capacity for the daily supplies used in treatments of student-athletes.

The training room is equipped with modalities to assist athletic trainers in the treatment of injuries of Centenary athletes. The room also contains training tables, an ice machine, and a whirlpool.

David Pratt
Asst. A.D./Sports Information Director

David Pratt is now in his seventh year as a member of the Centenary sports information department. After serving two years as an assistant, he was promoted to director of sports information in 2001. He is the primary media contact for men's basketball, men's and women's cross country, gymnastics, softball, men's and women's tennis, and volleyball. Pratt oversees all athletic department media relations, publications, statistics, archives, and game management efforts.

Pratt is a 1999 graduate of Centenary, earning his bachelor of arts degree in history. He was the 1999 Defensive Player of the Year as a shortstop on the Gents baseball team and was also a member of the history honor fraternity Phi Alpha Theta. He is presently a member of the Louisiana Sports Writers Association (LSWA) and the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA). His wife Keeley is a 2001 Centenary graduate, an assistant in the Centenary financial aid office, and the sponsor of the Centenary Leading Ladies Dance Team.

Pratt has continued his association with baseball by serving as an instructor at the Centenary Summer Baseball Camps. He is also currently a board member of the Shreveport-Bossier Men's Senior Baseball League.

Jeffrey Messman
Assistant Sports Information Director

Jeff Messman is entering his second year with the Centenary sports information department, his first as the Assistant Director. He is the primary media contact for men's and women's soccer, women's basketball, men's and women's golf, men's and women's swimming, and baseball. Messman also serves as the live statistician for all home soccer, basketball, and volleyball contests.

A Washington, D.C. native, Messman attended Pennsylvania State University before graduating from Marymount (Va.) University in 2003 with a Bachelor of Arts in Communications. During his studies at Marymount, he interned with the Washington Freedom of the WUSA women's professional soccer league during their 2003 championship season. He has also worked as an on-air statistician for Comcast and PAX cable networks and for the U.S. Women's National Soccer Team. Also, Messman has served as the official scorekeeper for the Shreveport Sports, the independent minor league team of the Central Baseball League.

Messman is currently a member of the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA) and the Louisiana Sports Writers Association (LSWA).

MONTGOMERY

HEAD COACH

MARK MONTGOMERY
HEAD COACH

Mark Montgomery enters his fourth season as the head coach of the Ladies softball team. In just three years, Montgomery has brought the Centenary program from an independent team to an annual NCAA Division I championship contender.

In 2005, Montgomery led the Ladies to their second consecutive Mid-Con Tournament title and their second straight trip to the NCAA Tournament. Centenary finished with a 31-28 mark and placed seven players on the All-Conference team. Four Ladies were given first team honors and five more were named to the All-Tournament team. In addition, the tournament MVP came off of the Centenary squad. The team proved it was a force to be reckoned with against any program and as the 2004 recruiting class continues to mature and the following top-quality classes arrive, the Ladies will only continue to find success.

With 2004's record of 36-28, Montgomery exceeded expectations tying a team record of wins in a season and took home the first conference title in Centenary softball history. In their inaugural season of Mid-Continent Conference play, Montgomery molded his first year class of recruits and achieved Centenary's first winning season since 1991. The postseason tournament concluded with players earning Mid-Con Pitcher of the Year and Newcomer of the Year honors, as well as four Ladies being named to the All-Conference first team. The conference win led the team to their first NCAA Tournament appearance. Battling #1 Arizona, the Ladies came close to a near-upset, leading the Wildcats 1-0 into the bottom of the sixth inning. Their impressive effort ended with a tough loss of 2-1. Coach Montgomery's athletes excelled on and off the field with 11 players named to the Academic All-Conference Team, more than any other Mid-Con softball team.

His first season as a Division I head coach was equally impressive, highlighted with the first Centenary no-hitter in five years, winning three of four extra-inning games, and several players earning conference and tournament accolades. The season opened with a dramatic win over softball powerhouse Florida and ended with another impressive spilt with Hawaii. Both the Gators and the Rainbow Wahine advanced to the NCAA Tournament in 2003. The season concluded with a 20-35 record.

On August 30, 2002, Montgomery was named the sixth women's softball head coach in the program's 17-year history. His goal was to bring the Ladies back to a winning tradition, reminiscent of the program's hay day in the 1980's.

Coach Montgomery came to Centenary after serving two years as head coach at Georgetown College in Kentucky. Under his leadership, the Tigers went 72-31 and advanced to the NAIA regional tournament both seasons. He was named the Mid-South Conference Coach of the Year in 2002 after Georgetown won the conference's regular season and tournament championships The team also achieved regional runner-up finishes.

In addition to his coaching duties, Montgomery is also the Assistant Athletic Director for Development at Centenary. He has had experience with major athletic projects, organizing and overseeing construction of a new on-campus softball facility while at Georgetown.

Coach Montgomery is no stranger to NCAA Division I softball, having served as an assistant coach under Beth Kirchner at the University of Kentucky in the 2000 season. He helped the Wildcats earn their first winning record in school history as well as a first place finish in the SEC Eastern Division.

Throughout the 1990s, Coach Montgomery was a successful high school coach at Lafayette High School in Lexington, Kentucky, and Richmond Model High School in Richmond, Kentucky. While at Lafayette High, Montgomery's teams won seven district titles, five regional titles, and a state championship. He was inducted into the Kentucky High School Softball Hall of Fame in June of 2004.

Montgomery received a Bachelor of Arts degree in history education from Eastern Kentucky in 1992 and a Master's degree in secondary education from Georgetown College in 2000.

The Montgomery Family: Bailey, Melanie, Adrienne, Mark, and Emma.

Mark and his wife, Melanie, have three daughters, Bailey, Emma, and Adrienne.

EVA HARSHMAN
ASSISTANT COACH

Eva Harshman enters her first season as an assistant coach for the Centenary softball program. She will be involved in all aspects of the Ladies program, including on-field coaching, recruiting, and strength and conditioning.

Harshman comes to Centenary with a collection of experiences as both a coach and a top-tier player. She coached the varsity softball team at Southside High School in San Antonio, Texas, for a year and a half while spending the previous two years as the head coach at Lytle High School in Texas. In addition, she has coached several summer travel softball teams, including her most recent stint as the skipper of the 2005 San Antonio Royals.

During her playing days, Harshman was a second baseman and left fielder in the Big 12 Conference at Texas Tech University. She was picked as a member of the San Antonio Armadillos National Pro Fastpitch Team and played on the Sonic Stars, a semi-pro team formed to play against the U.S. Olympic team during its final tour before earning the gold medal in Athens in the summer of 2004.

"We are extremely lucky that Eva has decided to become part of the Centenary Softball family," said Head Coach Mark Montgomery. "She is a tremendous young coach. Her intensity and competitiveness will help elevate our program to the next level."

"I am very excited about the opportunities that Centenary presents for my young coaching career," said Harshman upon her appointment. "I look forward to being apart of the relentless pursuit of excellence that the Centenary Softball program has become over the last several years."

2006 CENTENARY LADIES

DEFENDING MID-CON TOURNAMENT CHAMPIONS

The 2006 version of the Centenary Ladies softball team will be different from the teams of the last two seasons that advanced to the NCAA Regionals. Two years ago, the Ladies won the Mid-Con Tournament with a team led by upperclassmen and a senior hurler on the mound. Last season the Ladies accomplished the feat for the second consecutive year, only they did it with youth in the pitching corps and a core of players that consisted of mostly underclassmen.

This year's team is primed and ready to go for the three-peat as many of the players and coaches believe this squad is the best yet. The younger players now have experience under their belt and the pitching staff has matured as well. With the added depth provided by the newest recruiting class, the Ladies are considered one of the frontrunners to win the conference championship.

All good teams play to their strengths and over the past several campaigns that has meant using the speed game for Centenary. In 2005, the Ladies finished eighth in the nation in stolen bases but did so in a very unique way. The other seven teams that ranked ahead of the Maroon and White all had at least one player with 30-plus stolen bases while Centenary's top threat only stole 19 times. That stat proved to opposing teams that every player in the lineup would need to be watched closely as all the Ladies were capable of swiping a bag when necessary.

The Philosophy

Coach Mark Montgomery anticipates that Centenary will be running again this season, but not nearly as often, as he expects the rest of the offensive production to pick up in every category. The Ladies' offense has improved every year under Montgomery and this year looks to be no different.

The defensive philosophy will be the same this season as it has always been in the past. The pitching staff will be expected to set the tone by hitting their spots with regard to location in order to force the opposing batters to hit into the Ladies' defensive alignments.

Centenary continues to get better defensively and that trend should become apparent this season as many of the infielders become comfortable at their respective positions. Last season the infield was comprised of four first-year starters in Megan Hall at third base, Dana Davis at first base, and Jennifer Mango and Lindsey Jones up the middle at shortstop and second base. Those players are all back this season, two of which will return to their natural positions, and the addition of two quality infielders will help solidify a defense that already boasts strong outfield play.

Jessica Ivins

The Pitching Staff

Sophomores Jessica Ivins and Kristan Morton return for their second year with the team after shouldering the pitching load as freshmen last season. Ivins won the #1 spot last year and earned the right to pitch in the big games. She finished her debut season with the most wins in the Mid-Con with 19 victories while compiling 211 strikeouts in 216.2 innings. The righty also tossed four shutouts and 21 complete games while boasting an earned run average of 2.81.

The Ladies made trips to the NCAA Tournament in 2004 and 2005.

Morton pitched the Ladies to a 9-9 record in 97 innings of work while starting 20 games in the circle. She had some great innings and important starts in 2005 and has worked hard to develop consistency and control. Coach Montgomery has high expectations for her entering this year's campaign.

Adding one of the top high school pitchers in the state of Texas to a rotation that already sports two capable arms can only be a positive for the Ladies. Talented newcomer Ashley Lail (27-6, 0.24 ERA, 17 shutouts in 2004) is expected to challenge immediately as the ace of the staff. The coaches are excited about her potential as they already have lofty goals set for the freshman.

The Catchers

After playing third base last season, Megan Hall returns to full-time duty behind the plate. The junior, twice named to the All-Mid-Con team, hit .264 with four homeruns and 22 RBI last season. The Centenary defense will become stronger with her ability to cut down the opposing running game because of her strong arm and quickness.

Freshman Beth Krysiak will serve as the back-up catcher for the Ladies. Although she is getting used to the speed of the college game, her work ethic and knowledge have her ready to cash in on the opportunity to play when called upon.

The Infield

A good defense is always solid up the middle and the Ladies look to be set in that department in 2006 with junior Lindsey Jones and freshman Emerald Doria. Jones will again patrol second base for Centenary after being named a first team All-Mid-Con member as well as the MVP of the conference championship tournament. She hit .278 in her sophomore season while pounding out eight doubles and 19 RBI. She is a true infielder that comes up with the clutch hit and plays outstanding defense.

Doria is a highly touted freshman from Holmes High School in San Antonio, Texas. She is described as extremely talented by the coaching staff and is praised for her softball intelligence. The four-time All-District performer enjoyed a stellar fall and will take over the reigns as the full-time shortstop.

Sophomore Jennifer Mango will make the transition from primarily shortstop to third base after an amazing freshman season last year. She was named first team All-Mid-Con and second team All-Louisiana after leading the team with a .325 batting average. She also drilled four long balls and drove in 28 runs. Her experience playing multiple positions in 2005 should help her make a smooth switch to the hot corner.

Lauren Flowers

Dana Davis will again man first base for the Ladies in her junior season. A former shortstop with height to spare, she often makes the Centenary infield look good with her skills as a quality receiver. Dana hit .248 with four homers, 14 stolen bases, and 19 RBI en route to being selected second team All-Mid-Con last year.

Sophomore Amy Wiedeman could also see time at first base in addition to the outfield. She brings a left-handed bat to the lineup, which could get her a lot of innings and at-bats for match-up purposes. She also possesses good speed as she finished last season with 13 stolen bases.

Freshman Allison McClain has displayed impressive defensive abilities and can play any infield position without the Ladies defense missing a beat. She was chosen to the Texas Girls Coach's Association and Texas Sportswriter's Association All-State Infield squad while playing for Diboll High School. Her primary role this season will be as the utility infielder.

The Outfield

The Ladies boast an outfield that can serve as a pitcher's best friend the way it can save runs on defense, but at the same time provides speed and power at the plate. Mid-Con Player of the Year contender Micah Rhodes will patrol her usual position in right field while Lauren Flowers will continue to run down fly balls in center. Left field will be the only platoon situation for the Centenary outfield, as both Jennifer Martin and Brittney Broussard will see time.

A two-time first team All-Mid-Con selection and the conference's Newcomer of the Year as a freshman, Rhodes has emerged as one of the best players in the league. She hit .311 last year with a team-leading eight homeruns and enters this season just four long balls short of the Centenary record. She also tallied 35 RBI to place among the Mid-Con leaders. She looks to pace the Ladies offensively and is steady on defense.

Flowers had successful off-season shoulder surgery and is back ready to be the defensive anchor in center field with her tremendous speed and outstanding defensive prowess. She has the ability to make extraordinary, game-saving plays. When swinging the bat, Flowers is also a force to be reckoned with. She batted .305 as a freshman with five dingers, 21 RBI, and 15 stolen bases.

A pair of role players from 2005 will get their shot for increased playing time in left field this season. Martin brings great speed along with an awareness of the game while Broussard brings the potential of a powerful bat and athleticism. Martin hit .119 and stole eight bases in limited action last year while Broussard batted .190 while slamming a double and a triple.

The Role Players

Freshmen Leslie Postles and Ashley Martin in addition to sophomore Bre Fletcher will serve as role players to begin the 2006 schedule. Postles (Byrd HS) will find her playing time as a utility outfielder as she is able to play all three positions while showcasing her defensive skills. While improving her bat, she will help the team right away as a late-inning defensive specialist in close games.

Martin (Southwood HS) will continue to rehab a serious knee injury while providing quality depth in the outfield. while Fletcher will be used for her speed. Fletcher, a top player on the Centenary soccer team, will be called upon to deliver her speed in key base running situations.

The Lineup

Here is a sneak preview of the Ladies batting order as it might appear on opening day. Emerald Doria will lead off as she brings both power and speed to the top of the order. Jennifer Flowers, last year's leadoff hitter, provides power stats in addition to stolen bases in the two-hole. Batting third will be major RBI producer and dangerous left-handed power threat, Micah Rhodes. Protecting Rhodes in the line-up will be Megan Hall who is expected to continue to improve her offensive output after moving back to catcher. Day-in and day-out producer, Jennifer Mango, will provide a great average and surprising power in the fifth slot for Centenary.

The sixth, seventh, and eighth spots in the order are still to be claimed. The four leading contenders for the three holes to fill are Brittney Broussard, Allison McClain, Jennifer Martin, and the consistent bat of Lindsey Jones. Dana Davis will again look to get good pitches in the ninth spot and offers the Ladies both speed and power in a table-setting position, batting in front of the top of the lineup.

Without a true designated player heading into the season, as many as five players could see action in the slot. Frontrunners include McClain, Broussard, Jennifer Martin, Beth Krysiak, and Amy Wiedeman. Postles and Ashley Martin provide the Ladies with the option of playing small ball, as they are both slap hitters.

Jennifer Mango

The Preseason Poll

In the Mid-Continent Conference preseason poll of the league's seven head coaches, the Centenary Ladies were picked to finish second with 32 points, including two first place votes. Southern Utah was picked to repeat as the regular season champions with 35 points and five first place votes. Head coaches could not vote for their own teams. The rest of the field finished in the following order: 3rd-Western Illinois (23 points), 4th-Valparaiso (20 points), 5th-IUPUI (17 points), 6th-UMKC (14 points), and 7th-Oakland (six points).

DANA DAVIS - #4

First Base
5-11, Junior
Gracey, Kentucky
(Christian Country HS)

2005: Dana blasted four homeruns and hit .248 for the Ladies in her sophomore season. She finished third on the team with 14 stolen bases and tallied 19 RBI. Her season was capped with a pair of honors as she was named second team All-Mid-Con and was selected to the All-Tournament Team at the conference championships.

2004: Dana started 13 games in the infield and batted .255 in 51 at-bats. She finished 5-for-8 in a doubleheader against Grambling State including a 4-for-4 performance in the second game and hit her first collegiate home run against Valparaiso. She scored 16 runs and stole seven bases on the year.

High School: Dana was one of the best softball players ever under Jim Perrin for the Colonels. She holds the school records for most home runs in a season and a career, most doubles in a season and a career, and most triples in a career. In 2003 she led her team to a 29-2 record and was named first team All-State and All-Region. In 2002 she was named second team All-State and All-Region. In 1999 her team played in the state championship game.

Personal: Dana is the youngest of Joyce and Dan Davis's four children. She has a twin brother and two older sisters. Dana is a business administration and economics double major.

"As a mainstay at first base, Dana's leadership and individual hustle makes her game standout."

JUNIOR

MEGAN HALL - #18

Catcher
5-7, Junior
Jefferson, Texas
(Jefferson HS)

2005: Megan hit .264 while playing third base for the Ladies as a sophomore. She powered four homeruns, two triples, and nine doubles to go with her 22 RBI and 24 runs. At the conclusion of the season she was named second team All-Mid-Con for her fine play.

2004: Megan was named first team All-Mid-Con as a utility player in her freshman campaign. She started 39 of the 58 games she appeared in while batting .289 in 128 at-bats. She collected five doubles, two triples, and 19 RBIs on the year. Her first collegiate home run came on a blast against Southern Arkansas.

High School: Playing for the Lady Bulldogs under Jon Purifoy, Megan was a star both at the plate and in the pitching circle. In leading her team to the regional quarterfinals in 2003 and the area championship in 2002, her team became the only female team at her high school to ever win a playoff game. She earned All-State honorable mention in 2003, as well as MVP honors on both the All-Area and All-District teams. Her .430 career batting average is a school record, plus she holds season and career records for strikeouts and earned run average as a pitcher.

Personal: Megan is the youngest child of Angela and Jimmy Hall and has one older sister. She is pursuing a major in chemistry at Centenary.

"Although rehabilitating a knee injury, Megan should be our team's top catcher and she will provide offensive firepower in the clean-up spot."

LADIES IN THE COMMUNITY

It has been argued for many years that athletes are role models. People look up to athletes because of the way they hit a ball, and some athletes have tried to run away from that responsibility.

The Centenary Ladies embrace their role at the end of every fall season. For the fourth time since taking over the Centenary softball program, Head Coach Mark Montgomery and his staff planned a week of community service projects for the team to undertake as a wrapup to the fall season.

Several members of the Centenary softball team played with youngsters living at the Providence House as part of one of the Ladies' community service weeks.

These projects gave the Ladies a chance to give time and attention to people who are less fortunate than they are. The coaching staff felt that these trips also serve as good bonding experiences for the team, especially with many newcomers joining the squad each season.

In the past, the Ladies have traveled to the Irving Place Rehabilitation and Nursing Center and had dinner with the senior citizens living there, playing checkers and talking with them. The Ladies have also gone to the Salvation Army to feed those in need by wrapping over 100 barrels for the Thanksgiving and Christmas food drive.

At the Caddo Parish Humane Society, they cleaned and exercised the animals as well as engaging in other activities. Finally, at the local YMCA, the team cleaned the camp grounds to make them playable again.

By all accounts everyone involved, the players and the people they helped, were happy with the results of these projects. Montgomery's plans to make this an annual occurance has provided everyone associated with a well-rounded experience.

LADIES CAMPS

Another way that the Centenary softball program reaches children, especially young females, is through its softball camps, held throughout the year at the Centenary Softball Complex. The major camps take place during the summer, but the team also holds camps throughout the year when the young girls are not in school.

The 2006 Centenary Softball Summer Camps will take place during two different weeks. The first camp, a day camp, will run from Monday through Thursday, but a date has not yet been confirmed. The second camp is an overnight camp where the campers will stay in the Centenary residence halls and eat at the same cafeteria the Centenary players eat at during the school year. That camp will take place from July 11 to July 13.

The groups in these camps are divided by both age and position, so campers get the experience of learning the techniques of their favored position by the Centenary player who plays that particular position. Within each group the participants are at the same approximate skill level, letting the instructors concentrate on getting those campers to improve their abilities.

In the past, the Centenary softball team has hosted a one-day winter camp at the Centenary Fitness Center. During the seven hour camp, participants learned the basics of pitching, hitting, and fielding, taught by Centenary coaches, players. Due to the overwhelming turnout, there are plans for more winter camps in the years to come.

Finally, the Ladies have hosted elementary schools and youth teams in private camps. Depending on the ability level of the participants, the players have done everything from teaching the basics to overseeing full-fledged scrimmages.

For more information on any of the Centenary softball clinics, contact head coach Mark Montgomery at (318) 869-5094.

Centenary players teach aspiring softball players the basics about hitting during the Ladies' winter camp.
